

Oral History Interview

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer each question in the space provided.

1. Who was interviewed?

2. Who conducted the interview?

3. What was the purpose of the interview?

4. How long was the interview?

5. Was it enough time to get the information needed?

6. Did the interviewer stick to a list of questions or did they use questions that followed the flow of the interviewee's answers? Or both?

7. Did the interviewer get basic information about the interviewee's life at the beginning? Like what?

8. Summarize the main points of the interview.

9. What were the most interesting things that you learned?

10. What lessons about giving an interview did you gain?

